

Villa M

Villa M is a luxurious Bali Villas in the heart of rice fields. Whether you are a honeymoon couple or a family, this holiday villa in Bali offers the chance of an intimate and unforgettable stay on the Island of the Gods. It more than satisfies all the prerequisites for a blissful, luxury Bali villa holiday, presenting peace and tranquillity, total privacy, shady corners to relax and exemplary service in a beautiful rural setting, only 10 minutes away from Berawa beach on Bali's southwest coast and from Seminyak.

Offering guests a choice of renting options, this 5-bedroom retreat covers 2,000 square metres of land and is comprised of two self-contained Bali villas, each with a private entrance and a private pool. The 1-bedroom villa and the 4-bedroom villa can either be linked or remain totally separate and private. Designed by Balinese architect Putu Edy Semara, the style blends modern Balinese architecture with minimalist design.

One Bedroom Villa M

This private honeymoon villa in Bali, complete with living and dining room and private swimming pool is an idyllic retreat for couples. Here, guests can be pampered with a massage, take a dip in the pool, or savour cocktails in the poolside gazebo as the sun sets, before being indulged with one of the romantic candlelit dinners for which Bali Villa M has become so famous.

Bedroom

The ground level air-conditioned bedroom offers direct access to the pool, and is characterised by a timber floor, dark wooden furnishings and a king size, canopied bed under a soaring roof. There is a flat screen, LCD satellite TV mounted on the wall, complete with DVD player and quality sound system. Three floor-to-ceiling glass doors open out into the garden. There is a dressing area behind the bed, two huge wall mirrors, built in wardrobes and a dressing table.

Bathroom

The adjoining bathroom is light and airy with a polished concrete floor and a large porthole window overlooking the pool. The bathroom is fitted with top quality Kohler sanitary ware, including a terrazzo bathtub, twin washbasins, a toilet and an award-winning 'Rain Forest' shower positioned within a clear glass cubicle. With the pool on one side and a small walled garden on the other, guests have the option of opening all of the glass doors to create an open-air experience, and the clever design allows guests to step directly from the bathroom into the swimming pool.

Sitting & Dining

The sitting and dining room is a single storey, air-conditioned building with a high roof. It is elegantly furnished with a solid wood circular dining table for four, a comfortable sofa, ottomans and a coffee table, and equipped with a satellite TV, DVD player and quality sound system. Colourful artwork adorns the fresh white walls, and the provision of three sliding glass doors ensures that guests can fully appreciate the captivating view and the cool breezes. The well-equipped open plan kitchen is incorporated at the far end, featuring cream terrazzo worktops, a serving area, and dark wood units.

Pool & Garden

The large, cobalt blue tiled, infinity edge swimming pool measures 4 x 12 metres, and is perfect for swimming laps. It is flanked by a timber deck, which is furnished with sunloungers. A raised and cushioned 'bale' relaxation pavilion at one end is a great spot for chilling out. The garden is bordered by a glass wall designed to maximise the rice field view and highlight the awareness of being positioned directly in the middle of such a gorgeous rural area.

Four Bedroom Villa M

This 4-bedroom Bali Luxury Villa M can comfortably accommodate up to eight persons and is ideal for families or groups of people who enjoy holidaying together in beautiful destinations. There is any number of relaxation areas, so guests will always find a private spot for peace and quiet.

Master Bedroom

The Master Suite covers the whole of the upper floor and is accessed by a timber clad staircase leading from the downstairs living room. Characterised by glass windows on two sides, a wooden floor and a high thatched roof, the spacious bedroom is blessed with the gorgeous rice terrace views for which this Umalas villa is famous.

Bedroom

The three ground level bedrooms feature bengkirai wood floors, dark wooden furnishings, king size beds and fitted wardrobes under soaring roofs. Each is equipped with a wall mounted, flat screen LCD satellite TV, complemented by a DVD player and sound system. Floor-to-ceiling glass doors open out into the garden. Two of the bedrooms share a centrally positioned bathroom complete with a large frosted glass porthole

Bathroom

All bathrooms have polished concrete floors, and are fitted with top quality Kohler sanitary ware, each with a large terrazzo bathtub, a toilet, twin washbasins, and an award-winning 'Rain Forest' shower positioned within a cubicle. Three of the bathrooms boasts sliding glass doors on two sides bordered by a narrow walled garden. The glass doors can be opened to create an al fresco bathing experience.

Sitting & Dining

The air-conditioned sitting and dining room features a solid wood floor and sliding glass doors on two sides, with direct access to the swimming pool and pool deck. There is a well equipped open plan kitchen, a large dining table for eight, comfortable sofas and chairs, and a satellite TV, DVD player and sound system. A guest washroom is located to one side, and a large wooden statue of a Balinese goddess rests within an alcove.

Pool & Garden

The large, 4 x 12 metre, cobalt blue tiled, infinity edge pool is ideal for swimming laps. It is flanked by a timber deck, and features a random rock wall at one end and a large 'bale' relaxation pavilion at the other, complete with a cushioned base, soft drapes, and a pair of candelabra. The garden is bordered by a glass wall designed to maximise the rice field view and highlight the awareness of being positioned directly in the middle of such a gorgeous rural area.
